gates of light shaarei orah by the famed kabbalist rabbi yosef gikatilla is one of the most well known primary texts of kabbalah and was dubbed the key to all of kabbalah by the holy arizal of righteous memory it is said that whoever studies this text has fulfilled his obligation of studying the inner teachings of the torah this first authoritative translation now makes this work available to the english reading public the kabbalah is divided into three branches the theoretical the meditative and the practical while many books both in hebrew and english have explored the theoretical kabbalah virtually nothing has been published regarding the meditative methods of these schools this is the first book published in any language that reveals the methodology of the kabbalists and stresses the meditative techniques that were essential to their discipline kaplan offers a lucid presentation of the mantras mandalas and other devices used by these schools as well as a penetrating interpretation of their significance in light of contemporary meditative research in addition meditation and kabbalah presents relevant portions of such meditative texts as the greater hekhalot textbook of the merkava school the writings of abraham abulafia joseph gikatalia s gates of holiness gate of the holy spirit textbook of the lurianic school and the important meditative hasidic classics also investigated is the intriguing possibility suggested by the zohar that the meditative methods of the east might have been derived from the mystical techniques of the prophets deftly illuminated by gikatilla and grounded in historical perspective with introductory essays by avi weinstein moshe ideal and arthur hertzberg this significant contribution to jewish scholarship is rounded out with an index of scriptural verses symbols of the kabbalah philosophical and psychological perspectives provides a philosophical and psychological interpretation of the major symbols of the theosophical kabbalah it shows that the kabbalah particularly as it is expressed in the school of isaac luria provides a coherent and comprehensive account of the cosmos and humanity s role within it that is intellectually morally and spiritually significant for contemporary life this collection builds on the foundational work of penelope d johnson john boswell s most influential student outside queer studies on integration and segregation in medieval christianity it documents the multiple strategies by which medieval people constructed identities and in the process wove the boundaries of inclusion and exclusion among various individuals and groups the collection adopts an interdisciplinary approach encompassing historical art historical and literary perspectives to explore the definition of personal and communal spaces within medieval texts the complex negotiation of the relationship between devotee and saint in both the early and the later middle ages the forming of partnerships symbolic economic devotional etc between men and women across medieval europe s considerable gender divide and the ostracism of individuals and groups through various means including imprisonment violence and their identification with pollution contributors include diane peters auslander constance hoffman berman elizabeth a r brown alexandra cuffel anne m schuchman jane tibbetts schulenburg katherine allen smith kathryn a smith christina roukis stern susan valentine susan wade and scott wells until now few primary texts on the kabbalah have been available in english under the auspices of the bronfman library of jewish classics this historic publication of gates of light allows readers to enter the hidden world of the kabbalah and its profound and beautiful biblical interpretation this central text of jewish mysticism was written in thirteenth century spain where kabbalah flourished considered to be the most articulate work on the mystical kabbalah gates of light provides a systematic and comprehensive explanation of the names of god and their mystical applications the kabbalah presents a unique strategy for intimacy with the creator and new insights into the hebrew scriptures in the kabbalah seldom in modern esoteric christian scholarship do we find an author with the breadth of understanding to encompass the eastern central and western grail traditions john barnwell in the arcana of the grail angel synthesizes and illuminates the grail tradition in the light of modern spiritual science and the works of its founder rudolf steiner steiner s western esoteric stream of christianity creates a backdrop of historical philosophical and religious archetypes that encompass the most comprehensive esoteric christian cosmology available add to this an extensive panoramic view of the historical allegorical and spiritual nature of the grail and together we find this refreshing work and immediately recognize a must read anthroposophical classic like the works of guenther wachsmuth or sergei o prokofieff douglas j gabriel from the forward kabbalistic manuscripts and textual theory uncovers the unstated assumptions and expectations of scribes and scholars who fashioned editions from manuscripts of jewish mystical literature this study offers a theory of kabbalistic textuality in which the material book the printed page no less than handwritten manuscripts serves as the site for textual dialogue between jewish mystics of different periods and locations the refashioning of the text through the process of reading and commenting that takes place on the page in the margins and between the lines blurs the boundaries between the traditionally defined roles of author reader commentator and editor this study shows that kabbalists and academic editors reinvented the text in their own image as part of a fluid textual process that was nothing short of transformative this book is certainly monumental offering in its seven hundred pages a wealth of documentation and distilled argument that manages to be both comprehensive in its materials and transparent in its critical insights it is rare indeed that a work of such formidable scholarship can actually be a pleasure to read and convincing in its elucidation of what are often extremely complex documentary circumstances and editorial traditions from the foreword by david greetham
